FR. KEITH'S 100 WORDS: Among Jesus' people, dogs were not usually pets; they were more like remoras — you know, those eely fish that suck onto sharks so they can eat the scraps of a feeding frenzy. The woman reminds Jesus that dogs have the same master as the children, since the one who feeds the children gives the scraps to the dogs. Imagine! Casting a demon out of her daughter is a table-scrap for our Master. Take a look at a dog's eyes beside a table. Do you pray like that? Do you persevere in prayer like this woman?

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED! St. Joseph's Church is looking for volunteers to vacuum and dust the church, take out the garbage, tape the ribbons on the pews and mow and edge Fr. Keith's lawn and boulevards. This volunteer work would last until the landscaping project is complete. If interested in donating your time, please call Ann at the Parish Office at 701-483-2223.

CONGRATULATIONS to Danictza Sarai Garcia Delgado, daughter of Daniel Garcia and Dalia Delgado, who was baptized at St. Joseph's Church!

STEWARDSHIP: In today's second reading, St. Paul tells the Romans, "God's gifts and His call are irrevocable." To what is God calling me today? What gifts are mine to share?

Stewardship Thought: Jesus asks us to demonstrate our love for Him through our generosity to others. In our everyday lives, He calls us to share our gifts of time, talent and treasure with others.

Vocation Views: A Canaanite woman implored Jesus to reach out to help her daughter. Jesus was stretched beyond what He thought was His mission. Will you let yourself go beyond what is "safe"? (Matthew 15:21-28)

*St Joseph CCD is looking for someone who is excited about their Catholic faith and would like to pass it on to our young people. We are in need of a 5th grade teacher for CCD. Although a decision has not been made as to how we are going to run our program this year due to the coronavirus, we are still in need of a catechist. Some computer knowledge would be helpful but is not required.
