

Litany of Saint Joseph

Lord, have mercy.
 Christ, have mercy.
 Lord, have mercy.

Jesus, hear us.

God, the Father of Heaven,
 God, the Son, Redeemer of
 the world,
 God, the Holy Spirit,
 Holy Trinity, One God,
 Holy Mary,
 St. Joseph,
 Renowned offspring of David,
 Light of Patriarchs,
 Spouse of the Mother of God,
 Chaste guardian of the Virgin,
 Foster father of the Son of God,
 Diligent protector of Christ,
 Head of the Holy Family,
 Joseph most just,
 Joseph most chaste,
 Joseph most prudent,
 Joseph most strong,
 Joseph most obedient,
 Joseph most faithful,
 Mirror of patience,
 Lover of poverty,
 Model of artisans,
 Glory of home life,
 Guardian of virgins,
 Pillar of families,
 Solace of the wretched,
 Hope of the sick,
 Patron of the dying,
 Terror of demons,
 Protector of Holy Church,

Lamb of God, who takes away
 the sins of the world,
 Lamb of God, who takes away
 the sins of the world,
 Lamb of God, who takes away
 the sins of the world,
 He made him the lord of his household.

Let us pray, O God, in your ineffable providence you were pleased to choose Blessed Joseph to be the spouse of your most holy Mother; grant, we beg you, that we may be worthy to have him for our intercessor in heaven whom on earth we venerate as our Protector; You who live and reign forever and ever.

Saint Joseph, pray for us.

The St. Joseph Altar Tradition

The St. Joseph Altar dates back to the Middle Ages in Sicily, when a severe drought brought people to the brink of starvation. Many prayers were offered to St. Joseph, and through his intercession the rains came and the crops returned. So abundant was the harvest that the fava bean was growing in the rocks. In thanksgiving, the people set up tables of food to honor their patron saint and to share with the poor. This tradition of the Altar and sharing of food is continued in America still to this day by the descendants of the immigrants who came from Italy.

The St. Joseph Altar is traditionally set up in three tiers to represent the Holy Trinity. The table is filled with fruits, vegetables, breads, sweets and flowers. There are foods containing bread crumbs to represent sawdust, reminding us that St. Joseph was a carpenter. On the top tier is the statue of St. Joseph holding the Christ Child.

There are other traditions that are celebrated as well. Baskets of fava beans are usually displayed near the Saint Joseph Altar. They signify the abundance of the harvest through St. Joseph's intercession. It is said if you carry a fava bean in your wallet, you will never lack for food and the necessities of life.
